1000 Kytherians

Our Kytherian Community has done it again!

How many Diaspora communities in Australia – or anywhere in the world for that matter – can muster a total of over a thousand visitors to a "home movie" evening in two cities? Probably only ours!

The screenings of Kythera mon Amour in Sydney and Brisbane were wonderful events, for me at least. Making the comedy was huge fun in itself, but hearing people enjoying it and laughing heartily during the showings were some of the highlights of my life. Thanks again to all who attended!

Technical Hiccups and Happy Ending.

The evening at the Ritz was not without its challenges. I had delivered the film to the cinema a week earlier for them to convert it into a format suitable for their digital projectors. On the night we found that the bottom of the film with the subtitles was cut off, to the dismay of the considerable number of non-Greek speakers in the audience. I found out about the problem about ten minutes into the screening and had the film stopped. This might actually have been a blessing in disguise for three reasons: first, it gave people time to look around and find friends and relatives in the audience; second, it gave us a chance to distribute the film programs which we had neglected to do earlier; and third, it lowered expectations so that when the film began again, it seemed all the more entertaining and enjoyable.

Initially it was feared that the missing subtitles was an intractable problem – that they had been lost in the conversion process. Fortunately I managed to get the head projectionist on the phone at home – one of his juniors was running the projector on the night – and he realised that the projector was incorrectly set to a super-wide-screen mode instead of one suited to the film at hand. No one was more relieved than I was when the subtitles appeared when the film recommenced.

The inimitable Poppy and Georgos Koroneos of Karavas stole the show with their natural acting talent, especially Poppy's rolls of drachma-notes and George's suitcase full of bees.

Poppy and Georgos will return!

I've already begun to write the script for a feature-length sequel to the movie – "Kythera mon Amour 2: An Island named Desire" – which includes the original cast and many more interesting characters. Help us finance the film by pre-purchasing the DVD on our site or becoming a fully-fledged producer/sponsor for as little as $20. See www.KytheraMonAmour.com or call Kathy Samios on 02 9349 1849 for more details.

Almost 700 people attended the Premiere in Sydney – pictured here at the Randwick Ritz – and more than 300 in Brisbane.

You are the authors! Kythera-Family.net - the online cultural archive for Kythera - aims to preserve and reflect the rich heritage of a wonderful island. Members of the community are actively invited to submit their family collection of Kytherian stories, photographs, recipes, oral histories, and home remedies etc. to the site. Uploading directly to the site is easy and free. Thus we can help make available valuable and interesting material for current and future generations, and inspire young Kytherians to learn more about their fascinating heritage.
